2. The Lutz Kaserne was vacant; it was guarded by troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets. The Hindenburg Kaserne was occupied by only a guard detail, with the sentries at the gates wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The Panzer Schule quartered 150 to 200 signal troops, with the gate guards wearing black epaulets. One building of the Cambrai Kaserne was occupied by 200 to 300 troops. Sentries with red-bordered black epaulets and motor vehicles [] were observed at the installation. Camp Maybach at Zossen was vacant.

50X1-HUM

- * Comment. [] the vehicles belong to construction units which have been employed in reconditioning the barracks installations of Wunsdorf since the fall of 1950.
